

Domenick J. Tammaro, Partner
dtammaro@sbjlaw.com

Domenick J. Tammaro, a member of the firm's cooperative and condominium department, oversees the majority of the firm's cooperative and condominium matters. Mr. Tammaro works extensively with Boards to develop progressive building policies and streamline operations. He also has extensive experience in negotiating building financing with regional and national lenders for underlying mortgages. In the past five years, Mr. Tammaro has closed commercial and multi-family mortgages totaling in excess of $300,000,000.

As part of this ongoing work, Mr. Tammaro negotiates construction contracts, building service agreements and telecommunication contracts, monitors debt collections, and coordinates with governmental agencies. Boards find his communication skills particularly effective with shareholders and unit owners.

Mr. Tammaro earned his law degree from Hofstra University School of Law and his undergraduate degree from Marist College.
